

Alchemy has implemented a strict KYC program to ensure all kinds of customers are subject to adequate identification, assessment, and monitoring measures.

KYC includes not only knowing the Customers and entities the Company deals with, or renders services to, but also the Ultimate Beneficial Owners (UBOs), Legal Representatives and Authorised Signatories as appropriate.

The program includes strict identification requirements, name screening procedures and the ongoing monitoring and regular review of all existing business relationships.

Special safeguards are implemented for business relationships with politically exposed persons (PEPs) and clients from countries or industries deemed high risk.

Know Your Customer (hereafter KYC) refers to the Know Your Customer regulation that financial institutions and other companies must perform to identify their Customers and ascertain relevant information pertinent to establish a financial business relationship with them.

1. Definitions and Interpretation

In this Know Your Customer (KYC) document, the following words shall have the meaning respectively ascribed to them:

“KYC” means the Know Your Customer policy

“the Company” shall refer to Alchemy International Ltd (“Alchemy”)

2. What is KYC?

KYC is an acronym for “Know your Customer”, and is a mandatory requirement used for the Customer identification process. Alchemy will request documents to determine the true identity and beneficial ownership of accounts, source of funds, the nature of Customer’s business, reasonableness of operations in the account in relation to the Customer’s business, etc., in line with the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering the Finance of Terrorism Act 2020 including all of its amendments, issued by the Seychelles Financial Intelligence Unit to increase the significance on a risk-based approach introducing new procedures. The objective of the KYC guidelines is to prevent the investment firms from being used, intentionally or unintentionally by criminal elements for money laundering.

As part of our discipline to comply with the AML Directives, we have advanced the below Know Your Customer (KYC) list which will guide you as to the required information/documentation you will need to submit to be assessed and accepted as a client of the Company.

3. Information required

KYC has two components – Identity and Address. Each person, wishing to open a trading account, must submit documents confirming his/her identity and his/her residential address.

The required documents are:

- National Identity Card or Passport
- Recent Utility Bill or Bank statement no older than six (6) months (for the verification of the address)

4. Objectives of the KYC policy

- To prevent criminal elements from using the Company for money laundering activities.
- To enable the Company to know/apprehend the Customers and their financial transactions appropriately and enable them thereby to manage risks readily.
- To implement sufficient controls for the detection and reporting of suspicious and/or potentially illegal activities in accordance with the applicable laws and procedures.

5. Importance to comply with KYC procedures

The KYC procedure is part of the anti-money laundering laws and regulations, which aim to prevent the practice of generating income through illegal and criminal actions.
