2. What is KYC?

KYC is an acronym for "Know your Client", and is a mandatory requirement used for the Client identification process. Alchemy will request documents to determine the true identity and beneficial ownership of accounts, source of funds, the nature of Client's business, reasonableness of operations in the account in relation to the Client's business, etc. The objective of the KYC guidelines is to prevent the investment firms from being used, intentionally or unintentionally by criminal elements for money laundering.

As part of our discipline to comply with the PMLFTR {Prevention of Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism Regulations), we have advanced the below Know Your Client {KYC) list which will guide you as to the required information/documentation you will need to submit to be assessed and accepted as a client of Alchemy.

3. Information required

KYC has two components – Identity and Address. Each person, wishing to open a trading account, must submit documents confirming his/her identity and his/her residential address.

The required documents are:

- National Identity Card or Passport
- Recent Utility Bill or Bank statement no older than six (6) months (for the verification of the address)

4. Objectives of the KYC policy

- To prevent criminal elements from using the Company for money laundering activities.
- To enable the Company to know/apprehend the Clients and their financial transactions appropriately and enable them thereby to manage risks readily.
- To implement sufficient controls for the detection and reporting of suspicious and/or potentially illegal activities in accordance with the applicable laws and procedures.

5. Importance to comply with KYC procedures

The KYC procedure is part of the anti-money laundering laws and regulations, which aim to prevent the practice of generating income through illegal and criminal actions.
